

1970 YARDS ELITE FIGURED BATISTE

A manufacturer recently came to us with this proposition: Of cleaning up for them practically two thousand yards of their Elite Batiste, a thin summer fabric which has sold all the season for eight cents a yard. This was his inducement: To sell us the entire lot at such a price that we could, if we would be satisfied with a very narrow margin of profit to sell them quick, sell them at

Six and One-Half Cents a Yard.

Just stop and think a minute! Batiste, coming in a very choice selection of figures, dots and flowered designs, 27 inches wide and so suitable for gowns, house dresses, children's dresses and dressing sacques, at less than the price of common, ordinary print today,

Six and One-Half Cents a Yard.

"A Dutchman's Honeymoon," which will be presented at the opera house next Tuesday evening, May 21, is one of the most laughable farces comedies before the public.

Alex Lawrence has taken the tenement in Mr. Wallace's house on Terrace avenue in anticipation of the arrival of Mrs. Lawrence, who is now on her way across from the old country.

S. J. Segel & Co. have received their new line of summer underwear for men and boys in halbriggan and flie thread, including plain and union suits in white, cream, natural and black. You are invited to see.

Several of the electric cars yesterday afternoon had over a hundred passengers at one time and the limit appeared to have been reached on the first car which left the Inter-city hall grounds for this city. On this car 144 fares were rung up and it is probable that a few escaped the conductor's eye at that.

"A Dutchman's Honeymoon" differs from other honeymoons. Do you remember your honeymoon? If you are an old maid you never had a honeymoon. If you have lived in Chicago you may have had several, but if you wish to get some pointers on how to enjoy a honeymoon go to the opera house next Tuesday evening, May 21 and see "A Dutchman's Honeymoon."

Endowment policies at life rates. Dividends on Phoenix Mutual policies are large. They may be withdrawn each year in cash or deposited with the company at not less than 3 per cent. compound interest.
